Social Action Education as Spiritual Practice

Taught by Rabbi Rain Zohav With guest teachers
Alden Solovy and Rabbi Lori Shaller
Wednesday evenings: 7:00p.m. – 8:30 p.m. Jan. 25, Feb. 1, 8, 15, 22, March 1, 8, 15, 22, 29
An online, real-time teleconference class for clergy, seminarians and educators of all faiths

Learn how to connect the sacred teaching of your faith with your social action education and activities. Deepen your students’ understanding and connection to the Divine. Share lesson plans and ideas. Receive coaching.

We will explore these questions:

• What nourishes our souls and the souls of students as we engage in social change work?
• What role can the sacred texts of our traditions play in social action?
• What calls to our students? How can we encourage them to listen to the Divine and to heal in relation to our broken world?
• How can we empower our students to take action?
• How can we assist them (and ourselves) to overcome discouragement, despair and hopelessness?

REGISTER TODAY! aleph.org/programs/educating-for-spirituality

COURSE FEE:
$200 (plus $6 Trumah surcharge), but if you're one of the first 15 to register, you receive a 50% discount ($100 plus $3 surcharge).
